

Word Problem Practice

1. The sum of four consecutive numbers is 118. What are the numbers?
2. You have $2.45 in your pocket which is made up of 17 coins; all are quarters and dimes. How many quarters and dimes do you have?
3. Albert goes shopping and purchases 3 footballs and 2 soccer ball and 1 pair of shoes for for $190. Footballs cost $5 more than soccer balls. One pair of shoes cost twice as much as one soccer ball. How much does one soccer ball cost?